HOW TO USE THIS CALENDAR

The following provides an overview of the structure of this Calendar to guide users.

General Information

This section provides the contact information for the Faculty and University.

Degrees and Diplomas conferred in the Faculty

This section provides information on each of the qualifications conferred in the Faculty.

Explanation of the National Qualifications Framework (NQF)

This is a brief section on the NQF levels and qualification types.

Faculty Board and Faculty Office Staff

This section lists staff members who constitute the Faculty Board and Faculty Office staff members.

Lecturing and Technical Staff

A comprehensive Faculty staff listing per Department, Centre, Institute, School or Unit is provided.

Rules for Programmes

This section provides information on the rules for each academic programme at undergraduate and postgraduate level offered by the faculty. In each year level, and depending on the programme for which a student is registered, they are required to complete and pass a certain number of credits in order to promote to the next level of study. Promotion requirements per programme can be found in this section. These rules should be read in conjunction with the academic rules (Section 3) of the General Calendar (Part 1). Students should acquaint themselves with the rules in both Calendars and annually check for rule and curriculum changes.

Module Descriptors

This section provides information on all the modules offered by the faculty at undergraduate and postgraduate level. Module descriptors contain information which relate to the main outcomes and content for each module, including the credit value and NQF level of the module and pre-requisite and co-requisite modules. It is set in alphanumeric order per undergraduate and postgraduate offering. An alphabetical listing of all modules can be found in the module descriptor index.

Pre-requisite and Co-requisite Modules

A pre-requisite module is a module that must be passed prior to a student being admitted to a higher module or the following year of study as determined in the faculty yearbook. A co-requisite module is a module that must be passed prior to or simultaneously with another associated module before credit can be granted for the latter module. Requirements are provided in each module descriptor.

Explanation of Symbols and Remarks on Academic Transcript

This section provides an explanation of the symbols used and the remarks on the academic transcript.

EXPLANATION OF THE NATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS FRAMEWORK

The National Qualifications Framework (NQF) is “a single integrated system for the classification, registration, publication and articulation of quality-assured national qualifications” as stipulated in Section 4 of the NQF Act, 2008 (Act No 67 of 2008).

The National Qualifications Framework (NQF) has ten levels of which Higher Education qualifications occupy 6 levels of the NQF, namely Levels 5 to 10.

Levels 5 to 7 comprise the undergraduate qualifications (with the exception of the Professional Bachelor's degree at Level 8) and Levels 8 to 10 comprise the postgraduate qualifications.

NQF LEVELS	QUALIFICATION TYPES
5	Higher Certificate
6	Advanced Certificate Diploma
7	Advanced Diploma Bachelor's Degree
8	Honours Degree Postgraduate Diploma Professional Bachelor's Degree
9	Master's Degree Professional Master's Degree
10	Doctoral Degree Professional Doctoral Degree

As cited in the Higher Education Qualifications Sub-Framework (CHE, 2013)

Unless Senate decides otherwise, a student shall be required to meet the following criteria to be enrolled for the Bachelor of Arts Degree - BA:

C.1.1 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated from 2008

- (a) The National Senior Certificate for Bachelor's Degree study with a score of no fewer than 35 points calculated according to the University's approved point system, as well as the following specific programme requirements:
- Level 4 (50-59%) in English (Home or First Additional Language), and
 - Level 4 (50-59%) in another subject
- (b) No specific level is required for Mathematics or Mathematical Literacy except in the subject areas listed below.

Subject specific requirements:

An applicant who wishes to be admitted to modules in the following subject areas: Geography, Tourism, Information Science and Psychology.

- Level 3 (40-49%) in Mathematics or Level 4 (50-59 %) in Mathematical Literacy

C.1.2 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated before 2008

- (a) A Matriculation Exemption with a minimum aggregate of a D symbol.

OR

- (b) A qualification or level of competence which the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in (a) above.

C.1.3 Alternative admission

Alternative admission does not apply to this programme. Refer to Rule C.11

C.2 SELECTION

Final selection shall be based on an applicant meeting the criteria as determined by the Faculty.

C.3 DURATION

Unless Senate decides otherwise the duration for the degree shall extend over three years full-time.

C.4 SUBJECT AREAS

C.4.1 The following subjects offered in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities may be taken as majors for the BA degree:

- Afrikaans and Nederlands
- Afrikaans Taalpraktyk
- Anthropology
- Arabic
- Classical Culture
- English
- Ethics
- French
- Geography, Environmental Studies and Tourism
- German
- History
- Islamic Studies
- Language and Communication Studies
- Latin
- Philosophy
- Sociology
- Theological Studies
- Women's and Gender Studies
- IsiXhosa Studies
- IsiXhosa Language Acquisition

C.4.2 The following subjects offered in other Faculties may be taken as majors for the BA degree. Please refer to the applicable Faculty Calendars for module details:

- Industrial Psychology (Economic and Management Sciences Calendar)
- Political Studies (Economic and Management Sciences Calendar) *
- Psychology (Community and Health Sciences Calendar) *

Please Note:

* Psychology and Industrial Psychology are prohibited combinations and therefore cannot be taken simultaneously.

C.4.3 The following modules are only offered at Level 1 and do not lead to a major:

- Afrikaans Language Acquisition 101
- English 105/106
- Hermeneutics 121/122
- IsiZulu Language Acquisition 111/121
- Library and Information Science 111/121

C.4.4 A student who has passed Afrikaans Home Language or Afrikaans First Additional Language in Grade 12, may not register for Afrikaans Language Acquisition.

C.4.5 Advanced standing: Foreign Languages

A student with prior learning in any of the languages offered in the Department of World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures (Arabic, French, German, and Latin) may apply for advanced standing.

Advanced standing will be granted if a student has:

- passed the relevant language in Grade 12 with a score of at least Level 4 or has a certificate from a recognised educational service provider that is deemed the equivalent of such a pass in Grade 12; or
- to the satisfaction of the Department, demonstrated the required competence in the relevant language in a competency test set by the Department. Advanced standing will be granted solely at the discretion of the Department. A student shall not be able to appeal the Department's decision.

If advanced standing is granted, a student will be exempted from Level 1 modules in the relevant language and will be allowed to do Level 2 modules in that language after promotion to Level 2. A student may register for replacement modules at Level 1 from any of the modules offered in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities.

C.4.6 Transition rule from English 105/106 to mainstream English 111/121

A student who wishes to take either English 111 or English 121 must achieve an average of 70% for English 105 or English 106 to qualify automatically. A student with a coursework mark lower than 70% shall be expected to complete an assessment to gauge the skills they will require to be successful in English 111/121 after which they will be allowed to transfer at the discretion of the English Department.

C.4.7 Transition rule from Humanities to English and History Level 2 as a major

A student who registers for Humanities 111/121 will be allowed to major in History or English at second year Level after promotion to Level 2 and provided all pre-requisite requirements are met.

C.5 CURRICULUM

The curriculum is based on combinations of modules. Modules are offered in specific subject areas and at three different year levels. This implies that a student has to select appropriate modules from subjects they wish to study. A student's curriculum must include at least two major subjects. A major subject normally includes 30 credits at Level 1, 40 credits at Level 2 and 40 credits at Level 3.

C.5.1 Level 1

C.5.1.1 At Level 1, a student shall select modules in the following way:
60 credits in preparation for the two major subjects they plan to take and 60 additional credits, of which at least 30 credits are in another subject that can be taken further as a major. The selection of modules for a Level 1 student is illustrated in the following diagram:

Major A 111	Major B 111	Subject C 111	Module 1	8 Modules x 15 Credits

C.6 ASSESSMENT

Assessment is governed by Rule A.5 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1.

C.7 PROMOTION RULES

Unless Senate decides otherwise and subject to Rule A.3.2.3 or as provided for in the Faculty rules:

C.7.1 Full-time

C.7.1.1 Level 1

A student shall be promoted to Level 2 of study on obtaining at least 90 credits of which 60 credits from major subjects have been passed.

C.7.1.2 Level 2

A student shall be promoted to Level 3 of study on obtaining at least 200 credits of which 80 credits from major subjects have been passed.

C.7.1.3 Level 3

A student shall complete the degree once 360 credits (including two major subjects) are obtained and all the requirements for the degree are met.

C.8 ADVANCE REGISTRATION

C.8.1 Full-time

C.8.1.1 Level 1

A student who has obtained at least 75 credits at Level 1 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 40 credits at Level 2, provided that pre-requisites and co-requisites for Level 2 modules are met. A student in this category may not register for more than 90 credits in total for the year.

C.8.1.2 Level 2

A student who has obtained at least 160 credits at Levels 1 and 2 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 40 credits at Level 3, provided that pre-requisites and co-requisites for Level 3 modules are met. A student in this category may not register for more than 80 credits in total for the year.

C.9 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Renewal of registration shall be governed by Rule A.3.2.3, as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1 or as provided for in the faculty rules as contained in this Calendar.

C.10 SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PROGRAMME

- C.10.1 A student may consider registering up to two modules at Level 1 from outside potential major subjects to enrich the curriculum.
- C.10.2 For a total credit value of more than 360 credits the permission of Senate must be obtained. A motivation should accompany the application.
- C.10.3 Please note that timetable clashes may exclude some combinations of modules.
- C.10.4 A student needs the permission of Senate to register modules offered in subject areas not listed above and submit a motivation for such a request.
- C.10.5 The Department of Geography, Environmental Studies and Tourism can only accept 40 students for GES323 due to limited laboratory space. The final mark for GES226 will determine the selection of no more than 40 eligible students. Specifically, students with a minimum pass mark of 65% for a 20 credits module, GES 226, qualify to enrol for this module.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (Extended Curriculum Programme) (2612)

C.11 ADMISSION

Unless Senate decides otherwise, a student shall be required to meet the following criteria to be enrolled for the Bachelor of Arts Degree - BA:

C.11.1 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated from 2008

- (a) The National Senior Certificate for Bachelor's Degree study with a score of no fewer than 32 points calculated according to the University's approved points system.

OR

- (b) A qualification or level of competence which the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in (a) above.

C.11.2 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated before 2008

- (a) A Senior Certificate (Grade 12) with an aggregate of A, B, C, or D without Matriculation Exemption, or an E aggregate with matriculation exemption.

OR

- (b) A qualification or level of competence that the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in (a) above.

C.11.3 Alternative admission

Alternative admission requirements in terms of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

An applicant who completed the NSC in 2008 or thereafter, but has not obtained an endorsement, shall be considered for alternative admission after the age of 23. Such an applicant shall be required to complete an RPL portfolio development course and submit to a process where relevant learning and/or experience shall be assessed.

An applicant who is 23 years or older and does not have a matriculation certificate or NSC, but who may have obtained other qualifications or experience that may be deemed to be equivalent to admission criteria for the particular study programmes, shall also be required to complete an RPL portfolio development course or an RPL portfolio process as agreed upon, and to submit to a process where such learning, qualification, and/or experience shall be assessed.

C.12 SELECTION

Final selection shall be based on an applicant meeting the criteria as determined by the Faculty.

C.13 DURATION

Unless Senate decides otherwise the duration for the degree shall extend over four years full-time.

C.14 SUBJECT AREAS

Please refer to Rule C.4

C.16 ASSESSMENT

Assessment is governed by Rule A.5 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1.

C.17 PROMOTION RULES

Unless Senate decides otherwise and subject to Rule A.3.2.3 or as provided for in the Faculty rules:

C.17.1 Level 1

A student shall be promoted to Level 2 of study on obtaining 100 credits.

C.17.2 Level 2

A student shall be promoted to Level 3 of study on obtaining at least 190 credits of which 60 credits from potential major subjects have been passed.

C.17.3 Level 3

A student shall be promoted to Level 4 of study on obtaining at least 300 credits of which 80 credits from potential major subjects have been passed.

C.17.4 Level 4

A student shall complete the degree once 460 credits (including two major subjects) are obtained and all the requirements for the degree are met.

C.18 ADVANCE REGISTRATION

C.18.1 Level 1

A student who has obtained 60 credits at Level 1 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 30 credits at Level 2 provided that the class timetable accommodates the subject choice.

Notwithstanding Rule C.18.1, a student who has obtained at least 80 credits at Level 1 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 60 credits at Level 2, provided that the class timetable accommodates the subject choice.

C.18.2 Level 2

A student who has obtained at least 175 credits at the Level 1 and Level 2 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 40 credits at level 3, provided that the pre-requisites and co-requisites for the Level 3 modules are met. Students in this category may not register for more than 120 credits in total for the year.

C.18.3 Level 3

A student who has obtained at least 260 credits at Levels 1, 2 and 3 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 40 credits at Level 4, provided that all pre-requisites and co-requisites for Level 4 modules are met. A student in this category may not register for more than 120 credits in total for the year.

C.19 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Renewal of registration shall be governed by Rule A.3.2.3, as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1 or as provided for in the faculty rules as contained in this Calendar.

C.20 SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PROGRAMME

C.20.1 A student may consider registering up to two modules at Level 2 from outside potential major subjects to enrich the curriculum.

C.20.2 Please note that timetable clashes may exclude some combinations of modules.

C.20.3 A student needs the permission of Senate to register modules offered in subject areas not listed above and submit a motivation for such a request.

C.20.4 The Department of Geography, Environmental Studies and Tourism can only accept 40 students for GES323 due to limited laboratory space. The final mark for GES226 will determine the selection of no more than 40 eligible students. Specifically, students with a minimum pass mark of 65% for a 20 credits module, GES226, qualify to enrol for this module.

BACHELOR OF THEOLOGY (Full-Time) (2013)

C.21 ADMISSION

Unless Senate decides otherwise, a student shall be required to meet the following criteria to be enrolled for the Bachelor of Theology Degree - BTh:

C.21.1 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated from 2008

- a) The National Senior Certificate for Bachelor's Degree study with a score of no fewer than 35 points calculated according to the University's approved point system, as well as the following specific programme requirements:
- Level 4 (50-59%) in English (Home or First Additional Language), and
 - Level 4 (50-59%) in another subject
- (b) No specific level is required for Mathematics or Mathematical Literacy except in the subject areas listed below.

Subject specific requirements:

An applicant who wishes to be admitted to modules in the following subject area:
Psychology

Level 3 (40-49%) in Mathematics or Level 4 (50-59%) in Mathematical Literacy

C.21.2 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated before 2008

- (a) A Matriculation Exemption with a minimum aggregate of a D symbol.

OR

- (b) A qualification or level of competence which the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in (a) above.

C.21.3 Alternative admission

- (a) Alternative admission does not apply to this programme.
- (b) An applicant shall be admitted if they have a qualification or level of competence which the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in C.21.2 (b) above.

Alternative admission requirements in terms of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

An applicant who completed the NSC in 2008 or thereafter, but has not obtained an endorsement, shall be considered for alternative admission after the age of 23. Such an applicant shall be required to complete an RPL portfolio development course and submit to a process where relevant learning and/or experience shall be assessed.

An applicant who is 23 years or older and does not have a matriculation certificate or NSC, but who may have obtained other qualifications or experience that may be deemed to be equivalent to admission criteria for the particular study programmes, shall also be required to complete an RPL portfolio development course or an RPL portfolio process as agreed upon, and to submit to a process where such learning, qualification, and/or experience shall be assessed.

C.22 SELECTION

Final selection shall be based on an applicant meeting the criteria as determined by the Faculty.

C.23 DURATION

Unless Senate decides otherwise the duration for the degree shall extend over three years full-time.

C.30 ADMISSION

Unless Senate decides otherwise, a student shall be required to meet the following criteria to be enrolled for the Bachelor of Theology Degree - BTh:

C.30.1 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated from 2008

- (a) The National Senior Certificate for Bachelor's Degree study with a score of no fewer than 35 points calculated according to the University's approved point system, as well as the following specific programme requirements:
- Level 4 (50-59%) in English (Home or First Additional Language), and
 - Level 4 (50-59%) in another subject
- (b) No specific level is required for Mathematics or Mathematical Literacy except in the subject areas listed below.

Subject specific requirements:

An applicant who wishes to be admitted to modules in the following subject area: Psychology

- Level 3 (40-49%) in Mathematics or Level 4 (50-59%) in Mathematical Literacy

OR

- (c) A qualification or level of competence which the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in (a) and (b) above.

C.30.2 Minimum admission requirements for applicants who matriculated before 2008

- (a) A Matriculation Exemption with a minimum aggregate of a D symbol.

OR

- (b) A qualification or level of competence which the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in (a) above.

C.30.3 Alternative admission

- (a) Alternative admission does not apply to this programme.
- (b) An applicant shall be admitted if they have a qualification or level of competence which the Senate of the University has deemed to be equivalent to the requirements stipulated in C.30.2 (b) above.

Alternative admission requirements in terms of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

An applicant who completed the NSC in 2008 or thereafter, but has not obtained an endorsement, shall be considered for alternative admission after the age of 23. Such an applicant shall be required to complete an RPL portfolio development course and submit to a process where relevant learning and/or experience shall be assessed.

An applicant who is 23 years or older and does not have a matriculation certificate or NSC, but who may have obtained other qualifications or experience that may be deemed to be equivalent to admission criteria for the particular study programmes, shall also be required to complete an RPL portfolio development course or an RPL portfolio process as agreed upon, and to submit to a process where such learning, qualification, and/or experience shall be assessed.

C.31 SELECTION

Final selection shall be based on an applicant meeting the criteria as determined by the Faculty.

C.32 DURATION

Unless Senate decides otherwise the duration for the degree shall extend over five years part-time.

C.44 ASSESSMENT

Assessment is governed by Rule A.5 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1.

C.45 PROMOTION RULES

Unless Senate decides otherwise and subject to Rule A.3.2.3 or as provided for in the Faculty rules:

C.45.1 Level 1

A student shall be promoted to Level 2 of study on obtaining at least 90 credits, and on passing all Level 1 compulsory modules.

C.45.2 Level 2

A student shall be promoted to Level 3 of study on obtaining at least 220 credits and on passing all Level 2 compulsory modules.

C.45.3 Level 3

A student shall be promoted to Level 4 of study on obtaining 360 credits and on passing all Levels 1, 2 and 3 modules.

C.45.4 Level 4

A student shall complete the degree once 480 credits are obtained and all the requirements for the degree are met.

C.46 ADVANCE REGISTRATION

C.46.1 Level 1

A student who has obtained at least 75 credits at Level 1 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 40 credits at Level 2, provided that pre-requisites and co-requisites for Level 2 modules are met. A student in this category may not register for more than 100 credits for the year.

C.46.2 Level 2

A student who has obtained at least 180 credits at Levels 1 and 2 of study may be allowed to register for a maximum of 40 credits at Level 3, provided that pre-requisites and co-requisites for Level 3 modules are met. A student in this category may not register for more than 140 credits for the year.

C.47 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Renewal of registration shall be governed by Rule A.3.2.3, as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1 or as provided for in the faculty rules as contained in this Calendar.

C.48 SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PROGRAMME

- C.48.1 Modules in subject areas offered in other Faculties may also be selected. All pre-requisites for such modules must be met. Departmental approval is required.
- C.48.2 Deviations from this pattern may be considered. However, for a total credit value of more than 480 credits the permission of Senate must be obtained. A motivation should accompany the application.
- C.48.3 Please note that timetable clashes may exclude some combinations of modules.
- C.48.4 After five years of study a student must have obtained at least 360 credit points and qualify to complete the degree in the next year.
- C.48.5 After six years of study, a student must have completed all the requirements for the degree.
- C.48.6 A student shall be required to complete Library Science 402 to obtain credits for 200 hours of practical fieldwork.

C.75 ASSESSMENT

Assessment is governed by Rule A.5 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1.

C.76 PROGRESSION RULES

C.76.1 Full-time

Unless Senate decides otherwise, a full-time student shall complete the programme in one year. A student who has passed at least 60 credits may proceed with their studies to complete the programme in the following year.

C.76.2 Part-time

Unless Senate decides otherwise, a part-time student shall complete the programme in two consecutive years and accumulate at least 60 credits per annum to proceed with their studies.

A student who has accumulated 90 credits within two years may be allowed to proceed to the following year to complete the programme.

C.77 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Renewal of registration shall be governed by Rule A.4, as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1 or as provided for in the faculty rules as contained in this Calendar.

C.78 SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PROGRAMME

C.78.1 Please note not all disciplines or modules may be offered in a particular year. A student is advised to consult the relevant department for more information in this regard.

C.78.2 Geography and Environment Science

C.78.2.1 A student may select one elective module of equal credit weighting and NQF level from another department, provided that prior approval is obtained from the Chairpersons of both departments.

C.78.3 History

C.78.3.1 The Research Essay for History (HIS701) will be based on the research proposal and will be written under the supervision of a designated lecturer in the department and according to the criteria presently used in the department.

C.78.3.2 A student may select an elective module of equal credit weighting and NQF level from another department at UWC, provided that prior approval is obtained from the Chairpersons of both departments.

C.78.4 Linguistics

C.78.4.1 Linguistics has an applied language and communication focus. At the beginning of the programme a student's interests are considered, and their selected options will be offered where practicable.

C.78.4.2 It is strongly recommended that the Research Essay for Linguistics 701 (LIN701) should relate to one of the three other modules selected.

C.78.4.3 All the modules offered by the Department of Linguistics are evaluated in the form of either coursework and an examination of 3 hours, or an assignment of equal weighting.

C.78.4.4 A student may select one elective module of equal credit weighting and NQF level from another department in the Arts and Humanities Faculty, provided that prior approval is obtained from the Chairpersons of both departments.

C.78.5 Women's and Gender Studies

C.78.5.1 A student may select an elective module of equal credit weighting and NQF level offered by another department, or another institution (if an appropriate MOU is in place).

C.78.5.2 A student who chooses an elective module outside the department must get written permission from the Chairpersons of both departments.

C.78.6 English

- C.78.6.1 A student may select one elective module of equal credit weighting and NQF level from another department in the Arts and Humanities Faculty, provided that prior approval is obtained from the Chairpersons of both departments.

C.78.7 Foreign Languages

C.83 ASSESSMENT

C.83.1 Assessment is governed by Rule A.5 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1

C.83.2 A 30 credit module will be evaluated in the form of either an examination of three (3) hours or a research essay or research project of approximately 10 000 words. The research project may take the form of a portfolio of research-based work done during the duration of the module.

C.83.3 In order to be admitted to the final examination in a module, a student must obtain a coursework mark of not less than 50% or may qualify for the final assessment in accordance with Rule A.5.3.5.

- C.83.4 For modules evaluated in the form of an examination, the final mark will consist of the coursework mark of 50% and an examination mark of 50%.
- C.83.5 A student who has failed a module may repeat it once with special permission of Senate (Rule A.5.4.2 (d)).
- C.83.6 The mini-thesis, based on the approved research proposal, is evaluated by a supervisor, an internal examiner and an external examiner appointed by Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty.
- C.83.7 A final mark of at least 50% is required for each of the coursework modules and for the mini-thesis.

C.84 PROGRESSION RULES

Registration for the following year of study shall be recommended by the supervisor, if in their opinion, adequate progress has been made during the current year.

C.85 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Renewal of registration shall be governed by Rule A.4 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1 or as provided for in the faculty rules as contained in this Calendar

C.91 ASSESSMENT

- C.91.1 Assessment is governed by Rule A.5 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1.
- C.91.2 A 30 credit module will be evaluated in the form of either an examination of three (3) hours or a research essay/research project of approximately 10 000 words. The research project may take the form of a portfolio of research-based work done during the duration of the module.
- C.91.3 In order to be admitted to the final examination in a module, a student must obtain a coursework mark of not less than 50% or may qualify for final assessment in accordance with Rule A.5.3.5.
- C.91.4 For modules evaluated in the form of an examination, the final mark will consist of the coursework mark of 50% and an examination mark of 50%.
- C.91.5 A student who has failed a module may repeat it once with special permission of Senate (Rule A.5.4.2 (d)).
- C.91.6 The mini-thesis, based on the approved research proposal, is evaluated by a supervisor, an internal examiner and an external examiner appointed by Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty.
- C.91.7 A final mark of at least 50% is required for each of the coursework modules and for the mini-thesis.

C.92 PROGRESSION RULES

Registration for the following year of study shall be recommended by the supervisor, if in their opinion adequate progress has been made during the current year.

C.93 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Renewal of registration shall be governed by Rule A.4 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1 or as provided for in the faculty rules as contained in this Calendar.

C.94 SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PROGRAMME

C.94.1 General Comments

- C.94.1.1 Modules that are compulsory for a specific programme are indicated where applicable.
- C.94.1.2 In any of the structured Master's programmes listed above, a student may include one elective from any of the postgraduate modules offered in other programmes. Recommendations by the relevant departmental Chairpersons are required in such a case.

- C.94.1.3 Please note, not all modules may be offered in a particular year. A student is advised to consult the relevant department for more information.
- C.94.1.4 A Master's mini-thesis of approximately 20 000 words (90 credits) is required for all the structured Master's programmes in the Faculty. This mini-thesis will contribute 50% towards the final mark. Please consult the brochure on Procedures for Postgraduate Research in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities for details on the requirements and procedures that have to be followed.
- C.94.1.5 A student may not select a module for a Master's programme if they have already been credited for an Honours module with the same title. In most cases, this implies that a student may not select two modules in the same discipline where the last two digits of the module codes are the same. For example, students who were credited for Linguistics 732 (LIN732) will not be credited for Linguistics 832 (LIN832) because the course content is of a similar nature.

C.94.2 English

- C.94.2.1 A student who does an Honours core or elective module may not repeat the same module at Master's level unless the course content has been completely changed. Registration for any elective course that is part of the creative writing programme (English 819 (ENG819) and/or English 821 (ENG821)) require submission of a creative writing portfolio accepted by the English Department.

C.94.3 Women's and Gender Studies

- C.94.3.1 The Master's programme in Women's and Gender Studies (WGS) is of a multi-disciplinary nature. Various departments offer a wide range of modules relating to women's and gender issues from which a student may select electives as well. Please consult the department for the full list of offerings for the year.
- C.94.3.2 A student may select one elective that is not gender-related if it fits with their particular specialisation, in consultation with WGS.
- C.94.3.3 A student shall be required to complete Theories of Feminism 731 (WGS731) if WGS Honours programme has not been completed.

C.123 ASSESSMENT

- C.123.1 Assessment is governed by Rule A.5 as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1.
- C.123.2 A 30 credit module will be evaluated in the form of either an examination of three (3) hours or a research essay/research project of approximately 10 000 words. The research project may take the form of a portfolio of research-based work done during the duration of the module.
- C.123.3 In order to be admitted to the final examination in a module, a student must obtain a coursework mark of not less than 50% or may qualify for the final assessment in accordance with Rule A.5.3.5.
- C.123.4 For modules evaluated in the form of an examination, the final mark will consist of the coursework mark of 50% and an examination mark of 50%.
- C.123.5 A student who has failed a module may repeat it once with special permission of Senate (Rule A.5.4.2 (d)).
- C.123.6 The mini-thesis, based on the approved research proposal, is evaluated by a supervisor, an internal examiner and an external examiner appointed by Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty.
- C.123.7 A final mark of at least 50% is required for each of the coursework modules and for the mini-thesis.

C.124 PROGRESSION RULES

Registration for the following year of study shall be recommended by the supervisor, if in their opinion, adequate progress has been made during the current year.

C.125 RENEWAL OF REGISTRATION

Renewal of registration shall be governed by Rule A.4, as stipulated in the University Calendar: General Information Part 1 or as provided for in the faculty rules as contained in this Calendar.

C.126 SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PROGRAMME

- C.126.1 In any of the structured Master's programmes listed above, a student may include one elective from any of the postgraduate modules offered in other programmes. Recommendations by the relevant departmental Chairpersons are required in such a case.
- C.126.2 Please note, not all modules may be offered in a particular year. A student is advised to consult the relevant department for more information.
- C.126.3 A Master's mini-thesis of approximately 20 000 words (90 credits) is required for all the structured Master's programmes. This mini-thesis will contribute 50% to the final mark. Please consult the brochure on Procedures for Postgraduate Research in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities for details on the requirements and procedures that have to be followed.
- C.126.4 A student may not select a module for a Master's programme if they have been credited for an Honours module with the same title. In most cases, this implies that a student may not select two modules in the same discipline where the last two digits of the module codes are the same. For example: students who were credited for Linguistics 732 (LIN732) will not be credited for Linguistics 832 (LIN832) because the course content is of a similar nature.
- C.126.5 The module on Research Methodology 811 will no longer be offered as part of the curriculum for the structured Master's programme in Religion and Theology.
- C.126.6 Various institutions in the Cluster of Theological Institutions in the Western Cape offer structured Master's courses in religious and theological subjects. An agreement has been reached between the following institutions to allow students registered for a structured Master's degree at one of the participating institutions (home institution) to complete certain components of the course at any of the participating institutions (host institutions):
- Department of Religion and Theology, University of the Western Cape;
 - Faculty of Theology, University of Stellenbosch, and related departments at the University of Stellenbosch;
 - Department of Religious Studies, University of Cape Town;
 - Andrews University (Michigan, USA) (Extension Campus, Helderberg College).
- C.126.7 On the basis of this agreement, students registered in the Department of Religion and Theology, University of the Western Cape, may follow courses towards a structured Master's degree offered by any other of the above participating institutions. On successful completion of such courses, the University of the Western Cape will credit students for those modules of the structured MTh/MPhil that were substituted by the courses completed at the other institutions.

- C.126.8 The following procedure applies:
- C.126.8.1 Written applications must reach the Faculty Office at least two weeks before the final date of registration at the University of the Western Cape.
- C.126.8.2 A student must clearly indicate which module(s) offered by the Department of Religion and Theology at the University of the Western Cape they wish to substitute and which module(s) offered at a specified participating institution they wish to select instead.
- C.126.8.3 The mini-thesis may not be completed through the exchange programme.
- C.126.9 A student may register at the University of the Western Cape for the specified component of the structured Master's programme which is to be substituted by participating in the exchange programme.
- C.126.10 A student does not need to register or meet the financial obligations for registration and tuition at host institutions. A student will therefore register at the University of the Western Cape only.
- C.126.11 Detail concerning structured courses for Master's degrees offered at the University of the Western Cape is available from the Department of Religion and Theology and/or from the participating institutions.
- C.126.12 A student who participates in this exchange programme requires approval from host institutions.

Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should be able to: - Actively engage with learning through listening & note-making, both during the attendance of lecture-presentations and also as part of the active reading of prescribed texts. - Navigate library resources and locate information relevant to assignments by using a range of library resources (such as the library catalogue, electronic databases, books and other library- based print resources). - Create outlines, concept maps and self-edited drafts as part of working towards a completed written assignment such as an essay. - Write a coherent essay that integrates ideas and arguments from a few different sources (both prescribed and located independently) which are also referenced according to academic convention. - Use information technology tools to enhance organization, expression, self-learning and research.
Main Content	- This course uses a multimodal approach to introduce students hands-on to foundational skills of academic and information literacy. - From the outset social media platforms such as Facebook are used to enable the formation of a community in which peers may share ideas, cultural knowledge and enthusiasms, and participate in ongoing discussions. - At the same time, a scaffolded programme also enables students to build and strengthen a range of foundational skills for attendance of lectures and for navigating information resources. - The pedagogy that informs this course also entails a focus on contemporary news, public debates and a 'topical' current event, relevant to students' own lived experiences. - The course makes much use of popular culture in such forms as contemporary film and music. This focus serves as a vehicle to involve students in learning activities that systematically introduce foundational tools for critical thinking, knowledge production and meaning-making.

Duration	Year		Proposed Semester		Both Semesters
Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should be able to:
	• Apply word processing skills to write assignments that demonstrate formal language and academic conventions (e.g. with attention to grammar and spelling, formatting of documents, referencing etc). • Utilise/navigate the course iKamva website in order to read course announcements, access a range of relevant resources (readings, slide presentations etc), submit assignments, and participate in discussions. • Develop and apply a variety of personal management and self-reliance skills in the context of their academic studies • Articulate their own research question as part of a short research proposal relevant to the topic of language and power in South African society. • Use various resources available in the Library to compile a short annotated reading list relevant to a specific topic for research. • Collaborate with other learners through group work, participatory discussion, oral presentations and participation in peer review processes/tasks. • Write a reflective report about the experience of participating in a group research project.
Main Content	• This module includes attendance by students of two short courses that are offered by CIECT, Digital Academic Literacies (DAL) and Digital Media Studies (DML). DAL includes an introduction to the University Learning Management System (Ikamva), Word-processing software, PowerPoint presentations, navigating the internet etc. [More needed about DML]. • At the same time students learn foundational skills for effective communication (oral and written) in an academic environment. This aspect of the course includes focus on specific tools of everyday communication. • Lecture presentations and discussion sessions also introduce students to tools, strategies and resources to assist them with their adjustment to the university environment. The course combines input on how to deal with academic and psycho-social challenges by using a solution-focused approach with an overall approach to enable students to access appropriate mentoring, counselling and other relevant services. • As a course in Communication Studies, the module also includes exploration of questions about language and power in the context of South Africa's multi-lingual and culturally diverse society. • This serves as an affirmative vehicle for an introduction to foundational skills for participating in a group research project that invites students to share their own knowledge, even as they learn how to conduct formal research.

Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should be able to: • Reflect critically on the concept of contested spatialities • Discuss relevant perspectives on the changing space/time relationships globally and in southern Africa specifically • Discuss the function of mobility in the contemporary world • Engage critically with debates about of local and international African migration • Compare changes to South African livelihoods before and since settler colonialism • Demonstrate a clear understanding of the relationship between key economic concepts and the production of space • Reflect critically on landscape transformat
Main Content	This module will focus on developing an understanding of socio-spatial contestation. We focus on mobility, migration, livelihoods, urbanisation and land issues in a Southern African context. The content will include: 1. Mobilities: • Mobilities in the contemporary world with a specific focus on the global South • How humans, animals, objects, information and capital move • Mobilities in Southern African cities 2. Migration: • Migration in the Southern African context; • Migration and trans-national identities; • Forced migration and the concept of diaspora; 3. Livelihoods and cities: • How people sustain themselves over space and time before and after settler colonialism • How race, gender and class relations are related to livelihood struggles • Livelihoods, globalization, urbanization and sustainability 4. Land and Landscapes: • The concepts of land and landscape • Landscape transformations in SA, both historical and contemporary • Dispossession and restitution

Programmes in which the module will be offered		BA (2101, 2612)				Total Learning Time	200 hours
Duration	Semester		Proposed Semester			Second Semester

Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should be able to:
	- Identify the climate of different regions of southern Africa and describe the frequency of droughts and floods. - Interpret synoptic charts and identify common weather systems. - Contrast the causes and effects of natural climate changes with those of global warming. - Propose measures to reduce the impact of extreme weather events on infrastructure and communities. - Understand and describe macroscale geomorphic processes occurring in southern Africa. - Compare processes and dynamics of different geomorphic landscapes including periglacial, arid and semi-arid and coastal. - Explain the difference between mixed, bedrock and alluvial rivers and recommend how each should be managed to protect water resources. - Compare worldviews and how they impact upon the goals and intentions of environmental management. - Explain the relationship between climate, geomorphology and biomes in southern Africa. - Use maps and images to identify and investigate landscape processes. - Understand and apply geographic research methods pertaining to satellite images, aerial photographs and maps.
	Main Content	Climate:
		- South African climate and common weather systems - Causes of climatic variability (drought and flood cycles, El Niño) and climate change (global warming vs natural variation) - Köppen climate classification - Extreme weather events and disaster planning
		Geomorphology:
		- A brief geological history of South Africa - Uplift and erosion of the subcontinent - An introduction to periglacial, arid and semi-arid, coastal and river geomorphic processes
		Methods (to be integrated into Climatology and Geomorphology):
		- Introduction to geographical methods of studying the earth - Basic graph skills and introduction to statistics - Elementary cartographic and geo-referencing principles, and map work techniques - Analysis and interpretation of aerial photographs and satellite images

Duration	Semester		Proposed Semester			Second Semester
Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should be able to: • Students will have demonstrated an understanding of South African land issues in a broader regional perspective.

	• They will have engaged with some of the complex land tenure issues in the region and debated pressing questions around governance, authority, and women's access to land in so-called communal areas. • They will have developed an awareness of the way land has been used as symbolic capital in liberation struggles in the region. • They will have demonstrated a critical grasp of the South African land reform programme and its location within broader processes of agrarian change in the region.
Main Content	• The focus is on land issues in the southern African region. • Land is a highly emotive topic, as much about identity and belonging as it is about land-use and production. • Colonial and postcolonial histories of land tenure regimes in the region are examined. • These are linked to current struggles over private ownership and questions of power and access in so-called communal areas. • Political mobilizations around the land issue in the dying years of colonial rule are studied, together with postcolonial outcomes. • Lastly, the module pays attention to the successes and failures of South Africa's land reform programme and its relationship to broader agrarian transformations in the region.

Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should be able to: • Explain the impact of technologies of sense perception on expressions of race, class, gender and sexuality; • Acquire knowledge of the relationship between technology and colonialism, apartheid and globalization; • Analyse visual and aural sources, distinguish between different media and their representational strategies, and develop techniques of interpreting different historical sources; and • Gain competence in working with basic sound recording and image making methodologies.
Main Content	This course explores sensory histories. It intersects changes in technology with questions of race, class, gender and sexuality to develop key competencies in interpreting aural and visual historical sources, expression and debates. Encompassing selected case studies and practical assessments that focus on the sensing, recording, encountering, and reading of both sight and sound, the course tracks the changing interactions between technology and identity. The course shows how: • the senses were fundamentally changed in tandem with various histories of imperial expansion, technological changes and knowledge production; • technological change went hand in hand with larger project of colonial and postcolonial modernities, and how • historians' interpretative frameworks in relation to visibility and aurality are affected by these changes.

Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should be able to:
	• Demonstrate their active reading by identifying key concepts and the main components of the argument made by the author. • Write an essay that aims to build a coherent and structured argument • Write an essay that articulates their own point of view, while referencing relevant evidence and in relation to the arguments of various writers. • Demonstrate a coherent grasp of academic referencing requirements (e.g. referencing of paraphrased text, referencing of quotes, bibliography) Compare and contrast relevant arguments and points of view. • Include information about the writers whose arguments they are using as part of an essay so as to demonstrate an effort to pay attention to authorial provenance, authorial intent and relevant context.
Main Content	• This foundational course focuses on urgent problems that confront human existence and, in fact, all of life. Several key questions frame this course: What do we need to know to understand the Anthropocene, this human age? What is the biological context that underpin human existence? What are the forces that have shaped all of life, including human life? What are the 'cultural' problems that humans have experienced in the past and that are still problems today ('progress traps' that threaten the continuity of human existence)? Who and what are the driving forces and key players in these unfolding problems? How are these problems playing out today? How can we solve these problems? • Prescribed readings have been chosen as accessible introductions to key concepts and arguments. Throughout, the learning activities are structured so as to provide stepping- stones for the acquisition of academic literacies, particularly through scaffolded tasks of reading and writing. • As a Humanities module, the course introduces students to scholarly narratives and arguments that seek to understand our present through deep histories of the past and imagining possible futures. Students are presented with the image of a complex world in a course that offers navigational tools to map the territory and to begin to make sense of it.

Duration	Semester		Proposed Semester			First Semester
Main Learning Outcomes	On completion of this module, students should: Be equipped with knowledge of the differences between diverse methods of approaching linguistic description, in particular the theoretical assumptions and methodologies of the contextual approach to the study of language. • Show evidence of a critical awareness of Afrikaans, its structural diversity and social embeddedness. • Understand aspects of language structure and/or linguistic choices and be able to identify and apply it contextually. • Be able to reconstruct the pragmatic contexts of texts / text types and be able to relate textual choices to linguistic relevant contextual factors.

Main Content	• This module focuses on the grammatical (structural) aspects of Afrikaans and specifically the morphology and syntax of Afrikaans. • The approach is theoretically anchored in a contextual (pragmatic/functional) approach to the study of language. • This method of approach places the text (in particular the relationship between verbal and pragmatic contexts) central and rests on the assumption that there is an interrelationship between the form, function and context of language. • Apart from a comparison of the contextual approaches to other approaches as far as theoretical assumptions and methodologies are concerned, there is also a contextual investigation into selected morphological and syntactic phenomenon with emphasis on the conditioned effect of function on language structure, the influence of contextual factors on linguistic choices and the linguistic manifestation of socio-historical forces.
